The following was submitted by Deb Smith at Iron Horse Farm, 29 Coolidge St.:

Here's the latest on the Fiber/Arts Festival that will take place Nov. 11 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at the Sherborn Community Center, 3 Sanger St.

The show will feature hand-made items, from baby gifts and blankets to mittens, pottery, pillow, silk garments, wearable art and more.

The Iron Horse Farm, which is sponsoring the event, has sold out of space with a waiting list! There will be 31 artisans there, and we already have two "live" musicians lined up and hopefully more along the way!
